Reference: Aggregate Mined Land Reclamation Plan Annual Update for 2009 reporting period for ACCURATE Aggregate Pit in Nowhere, AZ. (Plan Approval date 6/15/2008)

Dear Sir:

EXPERT Rock Products is submitting an annual renewal update for the previous reporting period of 2009, per the Arizona Revised Statute (A.R.S.) 27-1277 and per proposed Arizona Administrative Code (A.A.C.) Section R-11-3-504. The Annual update is for the ACCURATE Aggregate Pit, located near Nowhere, AZ., in the County of La Paz.

1. Status of the ACCURATE Aggregate pit: EXPERT Rock Products has continued operations and have mined/processed very little during the year because of the economic slump. We continue as both Owner and Operator of the land. No address or other contact information has changed this year. We did reclaim 5 Acres, and disturbed an additional 20 Acres during the 2009 reporting period.

	(previous Totals)	2009	Current Totals
Area of the site:	160 Acres	same	160 acres
Surface Disturbance	125 Acres	20 Acres	145 Acres
Area Reclaimed	0 Acres	5 Acres	5 Acres
Area Not Reclaimed	125 Acres	140 Acres	140 Acres

2. Modifications to the approved plan:

Expert Rock plans no amendments to the plan at this time. We have no expansion plans for the near future, and will contact ASMI at that time, if this occurs.

3. Reclamation Costs:

No changes to the reclamation costs provided within the "Approved Plan" are necessary, because costs were projected for the entire 160 acres in the approved reclamation plan.

4. Financial Assurance:

We have not modified the bond and utilize the same as previously submitted, which is current. Or ... We are submitting the current bond amount, and /or financial updates with this update (or we will submit current bonds soon, during the renewal date of the bond)

We hope this information meets with your approval and the requirements of the current rules. If you have any questions, please contact George at 602 -555-5555.

Sincerely,
